

WORKS WRITTEN BY LATINO/A OLD TESTAMENT SCHOLARS

by Charlie Trimm, Brittany Kim, Zihan Xu, David Roberts, and Jeremy Labosier

March 2022

The contributions of Latino/a Old Testament scholars have not received sufficient attention within Western scholarship. This bibliography seeks to address this problem by highlighting the work of these scholars to encourage others to use these publications in research and teaching. The bibliography is not designed to be comprehensive, but merely to illustrate the range of scholarship available from these Latino/a scholars. Clearly many other sources could be added to this list, and works on the Old Testament have also been written by Latino/a scholars with advanced degrees in other fields, such as New Testament or theology, though they are not included here.

While Latino/a interpretation exhibits some common features, these scholars are writing from a wide variety of contexts. To highlight just one aspect of this, we have broken up the first section of the bibliography based on where these scholars are currently working: in North or Latin America. However, considerable variation may also be found within those groups. For this reason (and because some scholars have moved across continents), we have included the country/ies of origin and ethnicity for each Latino/a OT scholar in parentheses after their name, as far as we could determine that.<sup>1</sup>

This is a draft of the bibliography. The final draft, with works also arranged according to topic, will be completed soon.
